

BullyFreeBC

Membership Application

- Mission BullyFreeBC is a registered non-profit society dedicated to eliminating workplace bullying and harassment in British Columbia.
- Vision Through partnerships and cooperation between diverse parties, British Columbia enjoys a competitive international advantage by maintaining safe, ethical and productive workplaces.
- Values Respect. Responsibility. Honesty. Compassion. Fairness.

Areas of activity

- Consulting with various levels of government regarding anti-bullying legislation
- Assisting government, companies & non-profits to develop anti-bullying policies
- Educating the public about bullying
- Conducting research into bullying
- Working with other groups to carry out the above purposes

Application

Name: _____

Occupation: _____

Organization/Agency/Company(optional): _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Preferred Type of Participation (please check all that apply):

- ☐ Research, project work (includes student assignment, practicum)
- ☐ Mentoring a student or volunteer, providing advisory services as needed
- ☐ Providing professional services. In what field if different from above? _____
- ☐ Participating in dialogue sessions
- ☐ Serving on a committee
- Other: _____

Hours available: per week _____ / per month _____ / or for a project _____

I have read and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct (on page 2) _____

Comments:

Bully Free BC

Code of Conduct

Purpose The purpose of the BFBC Code of Conduct is to ensure BFBC maintains the highest standards of integrity in all aspects of its affairs.

Scope The BFBC Code of Conduct applies to all categories of membership.

The Code of Conduct

1. Members comply with the governance structures of BFBC, that is, the constitution, by-laws, policies, and procedures.
2. Members demonstrate the values of BullyFreeBC, that is: respect, responsibility, honesty compassion and fairness, in dealings with members, sponsors, stakeholders, government agencies, non-profit agencies, elected government representatives, and the general public.
3. Participants ensure that meetings take place in an atmosphere of mutual respect, courtesy, and cooperation.
4. Members are responsible for being aware of situations which constitute a conflict of interest; members should disclose the conflict and remove themselves from any decision-making capacity in those situations. Such conflicts might arise where there is a potential personal gain or a possible duty owed elsewhere.

BullyFreeBC: Year 1 Builder Member

BullyFreeBC registered as a BC nonprofit society in April 2011. The founding five members formed the board. Starting October 2011, BullyFreeBC will be accepting new members to help develop policies, programmes and an operational framework for BullyFreeBC. Builder members will vote in May/June 2012 at the first AGM on a governance package with strategic plan. It is anticipated that membership will then expand in the autumn of 2012 to include more categories and invite a wider range of participation.

Fee: $25

Term: to autumn 2012

How to apply: Please send a completed application (page 1) with a cheque - $25 - payable to The BullyFreeBC Society, 170-422 Richards Street, Vancouver, B.C. V6B 2Z4

Thank you!